Read the passage below and then answer questions 39- 50

My best friend is called Kalama. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mambo. They live at Marinda, which is a village near Mombasa. His father is a teacher and his mother works in an office. Kalama is ten years old a year younger than I am. He is about one metre and twenty centimetres tall. He is a very thin boy. He has a small head with short hair, a narrow face and long legs. His skin is dark.

Kalama goes to Bondeni Primary School like me. He is now in standard five . He is good at Mathematics. He also makes very nice articles in Art and Craft.

I chose Kalama as my best friend because he helps me in many ways. Sometimes, he lets me borrow his books if I need them. He also likes me because I am good at Home Science and I help him with one of the recipes.

Kalama and I often do things together after school . We also play football at the weekends.
