Once upon a time there was a man who had two wives. Each of the wives had a son. The first woman's son was called Owiti and second woman's was called Owino. Both boys were very kind and handworking and they loved each other. Unluckily Owino's mother got sick and died after all treatment failed. She died one morning and her son was left in the hands of his step mother.

The step mother was not kind enough to the boy and she made plan to kill him so that her son would inherit all his father's property. Owiti was not happy at all because he loved Owino. Then the day came for Owino's death. Owiti was sad that day. although he tried to hide everything, he found he could not. So he decided to ask him not to eat supper that evening. He told him about the secret between him and his mother. This saved Owino from death. They later told their father who sent away the evil woman.
